

Department of Allied Health Professions and Midwifery
(with Dietetics)
Council for Allied Health Professions Research Conference

Saturday 25th November 2017, De Havilland Campus

Bridging the Gap: Improving care by listening, understanding and implementing Patient/Client and Carer Centred Research

Draft Programme – timings may be subject to change

Audience: AHPM and Dietetic staff and other health professionals, UG and PG students, researchers, clinicians and managers

9.00am	Registration, coffee and poster viewing
9.30am	Welcome
9.40am	Research impact: a strategic approach to increasing the visibility of our applied clinical research.	Dr Hazel Roddam Reader in Allied Health Practice Allied Health Research Unit University of Central Lancashire
10.25am	Involving patients, service users and carers in research: more than just a tick box	Dr Julia Jones Reader in Patient Experience and Public Involvement and Service User
11.10am	Refreshment and poster viewing
11.30am	Qualitative research: putting the user first	Professor Julia Williams Professor of Paramedic Science, UH
12.15pm	Mixed methods research: putting the user first	Dr Hubert van Griensven, Senior Lecturer, UH
1.00pm	Lunch* networking and poster viewing
2.00pm	Workshops	Delegates select 2/4
	Searching the literature	TBC
	Understanding risk and ethical challenges	Dr Annabel Jay Senior Lecturer, UH
	Interpreting research findings	Martin Vosper Senior Lecturer, UH
	Getting your research published	Dr Jeremy Lewis Reader in Musculoskeletal Research, UH
4.00pm	Evaluation and close

*Lunch – you will be provided with a £5 voucher for the de Havilland restaurant where hot and cold food will be available