

Alumnus of the Week

Name: Eleanor Helsby

Year of Completion: 2011

Programme of Study: MA Human Resource Management

Job Title: HR Adviser

Employer: Hachette UK

What you liked about Hertfordshire Business School?

I liked the courses having a practical focus preparing you to work in industry and my HR MA has definitely helped me further my HR career. My course had a wide variety of modules and I was lucky to have a supportive tutor who guided me through the dissertation process.

What you do in your job?

Working for one of the big publishing companies in London means I get to work with some of the brightest people in the industry which is great! Much of my role involves advising and supporting managers on HR areas including recruitment, performance management, flexible working and a number of HR policies. I also help employees with any HR queries they may have. Having access to lots of fantastic books and roof terrace overlooking the Thames are definitely other perks of the job!

Whom you would like to connect with in the Alumni Network?

Other HR professionals and those working in creative industries.
