This course is designed for already experienced health professionals in order to prepare them for autonomous practice. It will provide participants with the knowledge and skills to treat, advise and discharge/refer patients presenting with a minor injuries based on a systematic assessment and diagnosis.

This course requires the student to successfully complete identified practice based competencies.

Content

- Autonomous practice.
- Documentation related to assessment of a patient with minor injury.
- Care pathways and referrals.
- Anatomy and physiology.
- Examination of the shoulder, elbow, ankle and foot.
- Head injury.
- Burns & wounds.
- Introduction to x-ray interpretation.
- ENT & eye injuries.

Cost

To find out information about the fees visit go.herts.ac.uk/cpdfees.