

Application form – Notes for guidance

General

Before completing the form, please read these notes carefully. You should also consult the specific course pages on the University's website (www.herts.ac.uk) to ensure that you are familiar with the course structure and entry requirements. Your application form may be photocopied, therefore it is important that you write neatly using black ink or typescript. Many courses have a deadline by which applications should be received. Please consult course literature or the department concerned.

Mature Applicants

The University of Hertfordshire (UH) welcomes mature students, including those who do not have conventional qualifications, for admission to higher education. Full account is taken of relevant experience and other educational achievements. All applicants must hold GCSE English Language and Mathematics at grade C or above. GCSE Science may also be required for certain courses. Please check the specific course pages for more details. The University accepts certain GCSE equivalences as listed on our website: <http://www.herts.ac.uk/courses/entry-requirements/undergraduate-degrees/gcse-equivalent-entry-requirements.cfm>

The Data Protection Act 1998

In completing and submitting your application form, you will be providing the University of Hertfordshire with personal data, including in some cases sensitive personal data, as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998. The University will use this data for the purposes of processing your application and for other administrative purposes relating to your application. The University will process this data in accordance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998 and with its own policies on data protection (which can be found on its main Data Protection web page at <http://www.herts.ac.uk/about-us/freedom-of-information-data-protection/data-protection.cfm> and in the other documents and web pages which are referred to on, and linked to from, this main web page). This personal data may also be shared with and used by third parties in connection with the above purposes, for example in order to verify your identity, qualifications, work experience and other information that you provide, or so that the University can comply with its obligations to supply certain information to the Higher Education Statistics Agency. Some of these third parties may be located outside the UK (including outside the European Economic Area). By submitting your application, you will be deemed to be giving your consent to the processing and use of your personal data as set out in this paragraph.

Referees

You should give details of any non-examined subjects you are studying. If you have been out of education, please outline any relevant experience that may be considered in lieu of formal qualifications, either at home or in voluntary or paid work. You should explain any gaps or breaks in your career. If you are applying for deferred entry (a year beyond the next academic year) please explain your reasons.

Section 12 References

Some departments may contact referees directly after receipt of your form. Normally your referees should be: the Head of your present or last school; Principal of your College of Further Education; Course Tutor or your present or last course of studies. If you have been out of education for some time you may wish to consider the following: your current or last employer, or training officer, or careers advisor; if you belong to a relevant organisation, voluntary or not, an officer of that organisation; Access course tutor. If you have any difficulty in identifying suitable referees you should seek the advice of the University Admissions Service.

Section 13 Disabilities/Special Needs

Unless special needs are made known, the University will be unable to make appropriate provision for you.

Important Note

The University uses all reasonable endeavours to provide its educational and other services to students in the manner set out in its prospectus and in its other relevant published materials. Should industrial action or other circumstances beyond the University of Hertfordshire's reasonable control interfere with its ability to provide these services, the University will use all reasonable endeavours to minimise any disruption caused to students. The University reserves the right to make changes to the content or methods of delivery of courses and modules, and to discontinue or merge courses or modules, in whole or in part, where the University reasonably believes that this is in the interests of the University or of students. In these circumstances, the University will notify affected students as soon as reasonably practicable and, in the case of a discontinued course or module, will where appropriate use all reasonable endeavours to offer the students a suitable alternative course or module. The University of Hertfordshire does not therefore accept any absolute obligation to provide its educational or other services in the manner set out in its prospectus or elsewhere, nor does it accept any other obligation in respect of the provision of educational or other services which is more onerous than the obligations set out in this paragraph. Any offer of a place made to you by the University of Hertfordshire will be made on the basis that, on registration, you will confirm your agreement to certain terms and conditions that will apply to you as a student at the University, including the provisions of the preceding paragraph and your agreement to comply with and be bound by the University's institutional policies, procedures and regulations (UPRs) in force from time to time, the current version of which can be found at www.herts.ac.uk/upr

4 Declaration of a criminal conviction

To help the University reduce the risk of harm or injury to their students caused by the criminal behaviour of other students, we must know about any relevant criminal convictions that an applicant has.

Relevant criminal convictions are only those convictions for offences against the person, whether of a violent or a sexual nature, and convictions for offences involving unlawfully supplying controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them (but see next paragraph).

If you are applying for courses in teaching, health, social work and courses involving work with children or vulnerable adults, you must tell us about any criminal convictions including spent sentences and cautions (including verbal cautions) and bind-over orders. If you are offered a place on one of these courses, and before you commence your studies, you will need an 'Enhanced Disclosure Document' from the Criminal Records Bureau. The University will provide you with the information on how to do this.

Courses in teaching, health, social work and courses involving work with children or vulnerable adults.

For these courses, you must answer 'Yes' if any of the following statements apply to you.

- a) I have a criminal conviction.
- b) I have a spent criminal conviction.
- c) I have a caution (including a verbal caution).
- d) I have a bind-over order.
- e) I am serving a prison sentence for a criminal conviction.

If statement e) applies to you, you must also give the prison address as your postal address on page 1 of your application and a senior prison officer must support your application.

All other courses

For those course, you must answer 'Yes' if any of the following statements apply to you.

- a) I have a relevant criminal conviction that is not spent.
- b) I am serving a prison sentence for a relevant criminal conviction.

If statement b) applies to you, you must also give the prison address as your postal address on page 1 of your application and a senior prison officer must support your application. Convictions that are spent (as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them.

Please indicate if you have a relevant criminal conviction by ticking in the box Yes  No

Applicants who answer 'Yes' will not be automatically excluded from the application process, and their application will be considered on its merits before the relevance of their criminal conviction is taken into account. However, the University may ask for more information about their criminal conviction before making a final decision.

If you are convicted of a relevant criminal offence after you have applied, you must tell us. Do not send details of the offence; simply tell us that you have a relevant criminal conviction. The University may then ask you for more details.

5 Previous study in the UK (for overseas applicants)

The Home Office has introduced a limit to the time that international students on a Tier 4 Student Visa can spend studying at degree level. There will be a general limit of 5 years on study time but this will not apply to those studying for Master's degrees following successful completion of an undergraduate degree where the undergraduate course duration was 4 or 5 years. In these cases the limit will be set at 6 years. We also have to ensure that any study you are proposing to undertake represents academic progression from any previous studies in the UK.

In view of this new policy it is essential that you answer the following question:

Have you ever studied previously in the UK?

Yes

No

If yes, please list below any previous study (regardless of the level i.e. English language courses) undertaken in the UK. We will also require copies of all visas held during those periods of study.

If you have been a student at the University of Hertfordshire or one of its associate colleges before, please give your student ID number.
