

“

I've developed an impressive portfolio of skills and will gain my Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development accreditation through my placement. I now have a great CV based on real work experience for a global organisation.”

Emily Rogers, Industrial Trainee, Pfizer, placement student, BA (Hons)
Human Resource Management, Business School

“

The university's 'mock pharmacy' gives us the opportunity to put what we have learnt into practice in a safe environment.”

Diana Makani, 3rd year student,
MPharm, Pharmacy

University of Hertfordshire

U
H

Photos: Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student, BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

University of Hertfordshire

U
H

“

I have gained confidence to tackle large special effects projects through work experience within the film industry.”

Neil Ellis, 3rd year student,
BA (Hons) Model Design
and Special Effects

Photos: Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student, BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

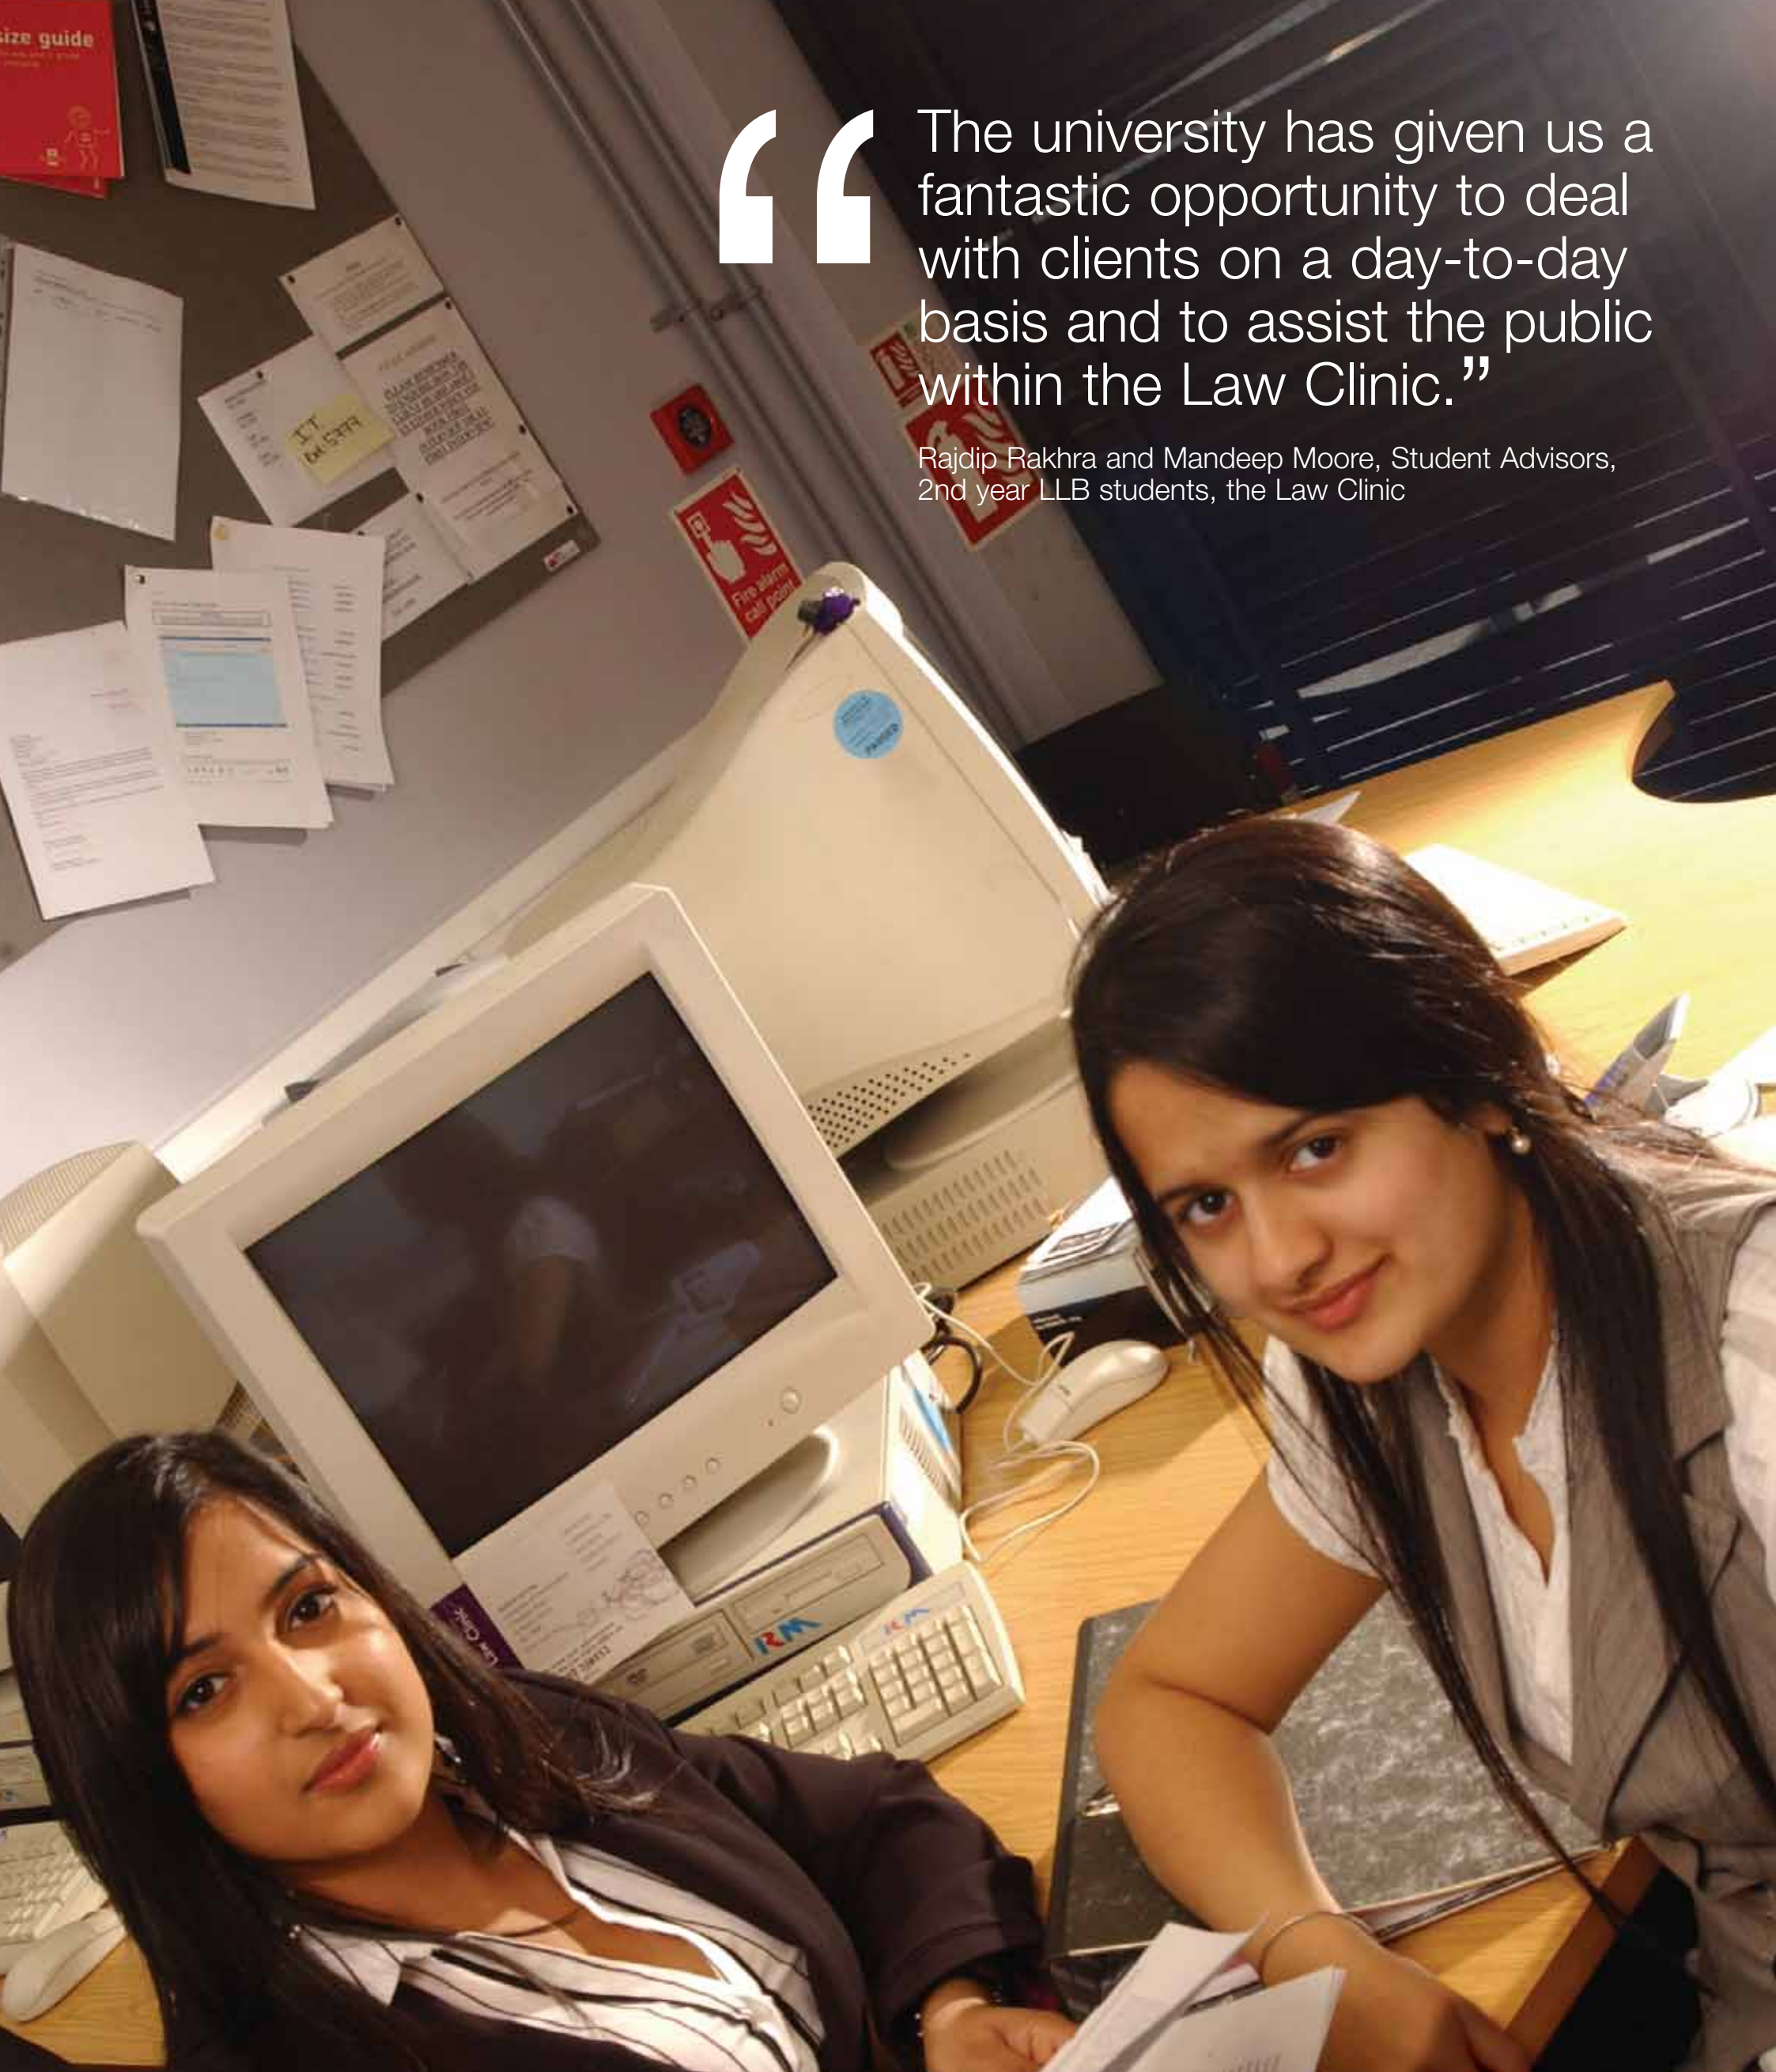

“

Being a Student Ambassador adds value to your university experience: I've met lots of people, developed my presentation skills and am much more organised, independent and responsible.”

Liz Kenny, 4th year student,
BA (Hons) Marketing, Business School

University of Hertfordshire

“

The university has given us a fantastic opportunity to deal with clients on a day-to-day basis and to assist the public within the Law Clinic.”

Rajdip Rakhra and Mandeep Moore, Student Advisors, 2nd year LLB students, the Law Clinic

University of Hertfordshire

“

This course has honed my photographic skills and provided valuable opportunities to gain industry experience. For example, photographing this project for my final year 'professional practice' portfolio.”

Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student,
BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

University of Hertfordshire

U
H

By developing alumni profiles we are celebrating the value that our graduates add to society and human culture; and inspiring future graduates.”

William Davies,
Lecturer in Law, LLB graduate

Penny Carey, Associate Dean
(European and International Affairs),
Humanities, Law and Education

“

The first thing potential employers look at is our Formula Student experience... the real-life practical experience means you're ahead of everyone else.”

Ian Burgess and Chris Slevin,
4th year students, BSc (Hons) Motorsport Technology

University of
Hertfordshire

U
H

“

I receive great lectures from top music industry experts... I am in the process of releasing an album on Infuse, the university's very own student record label. This is opening many doors into a highly competitive industry.”

Luke Armitage, 2nd year student,
BA (Hons) Music and Entertainment Industry Management

University of Hertfordshire

U
H

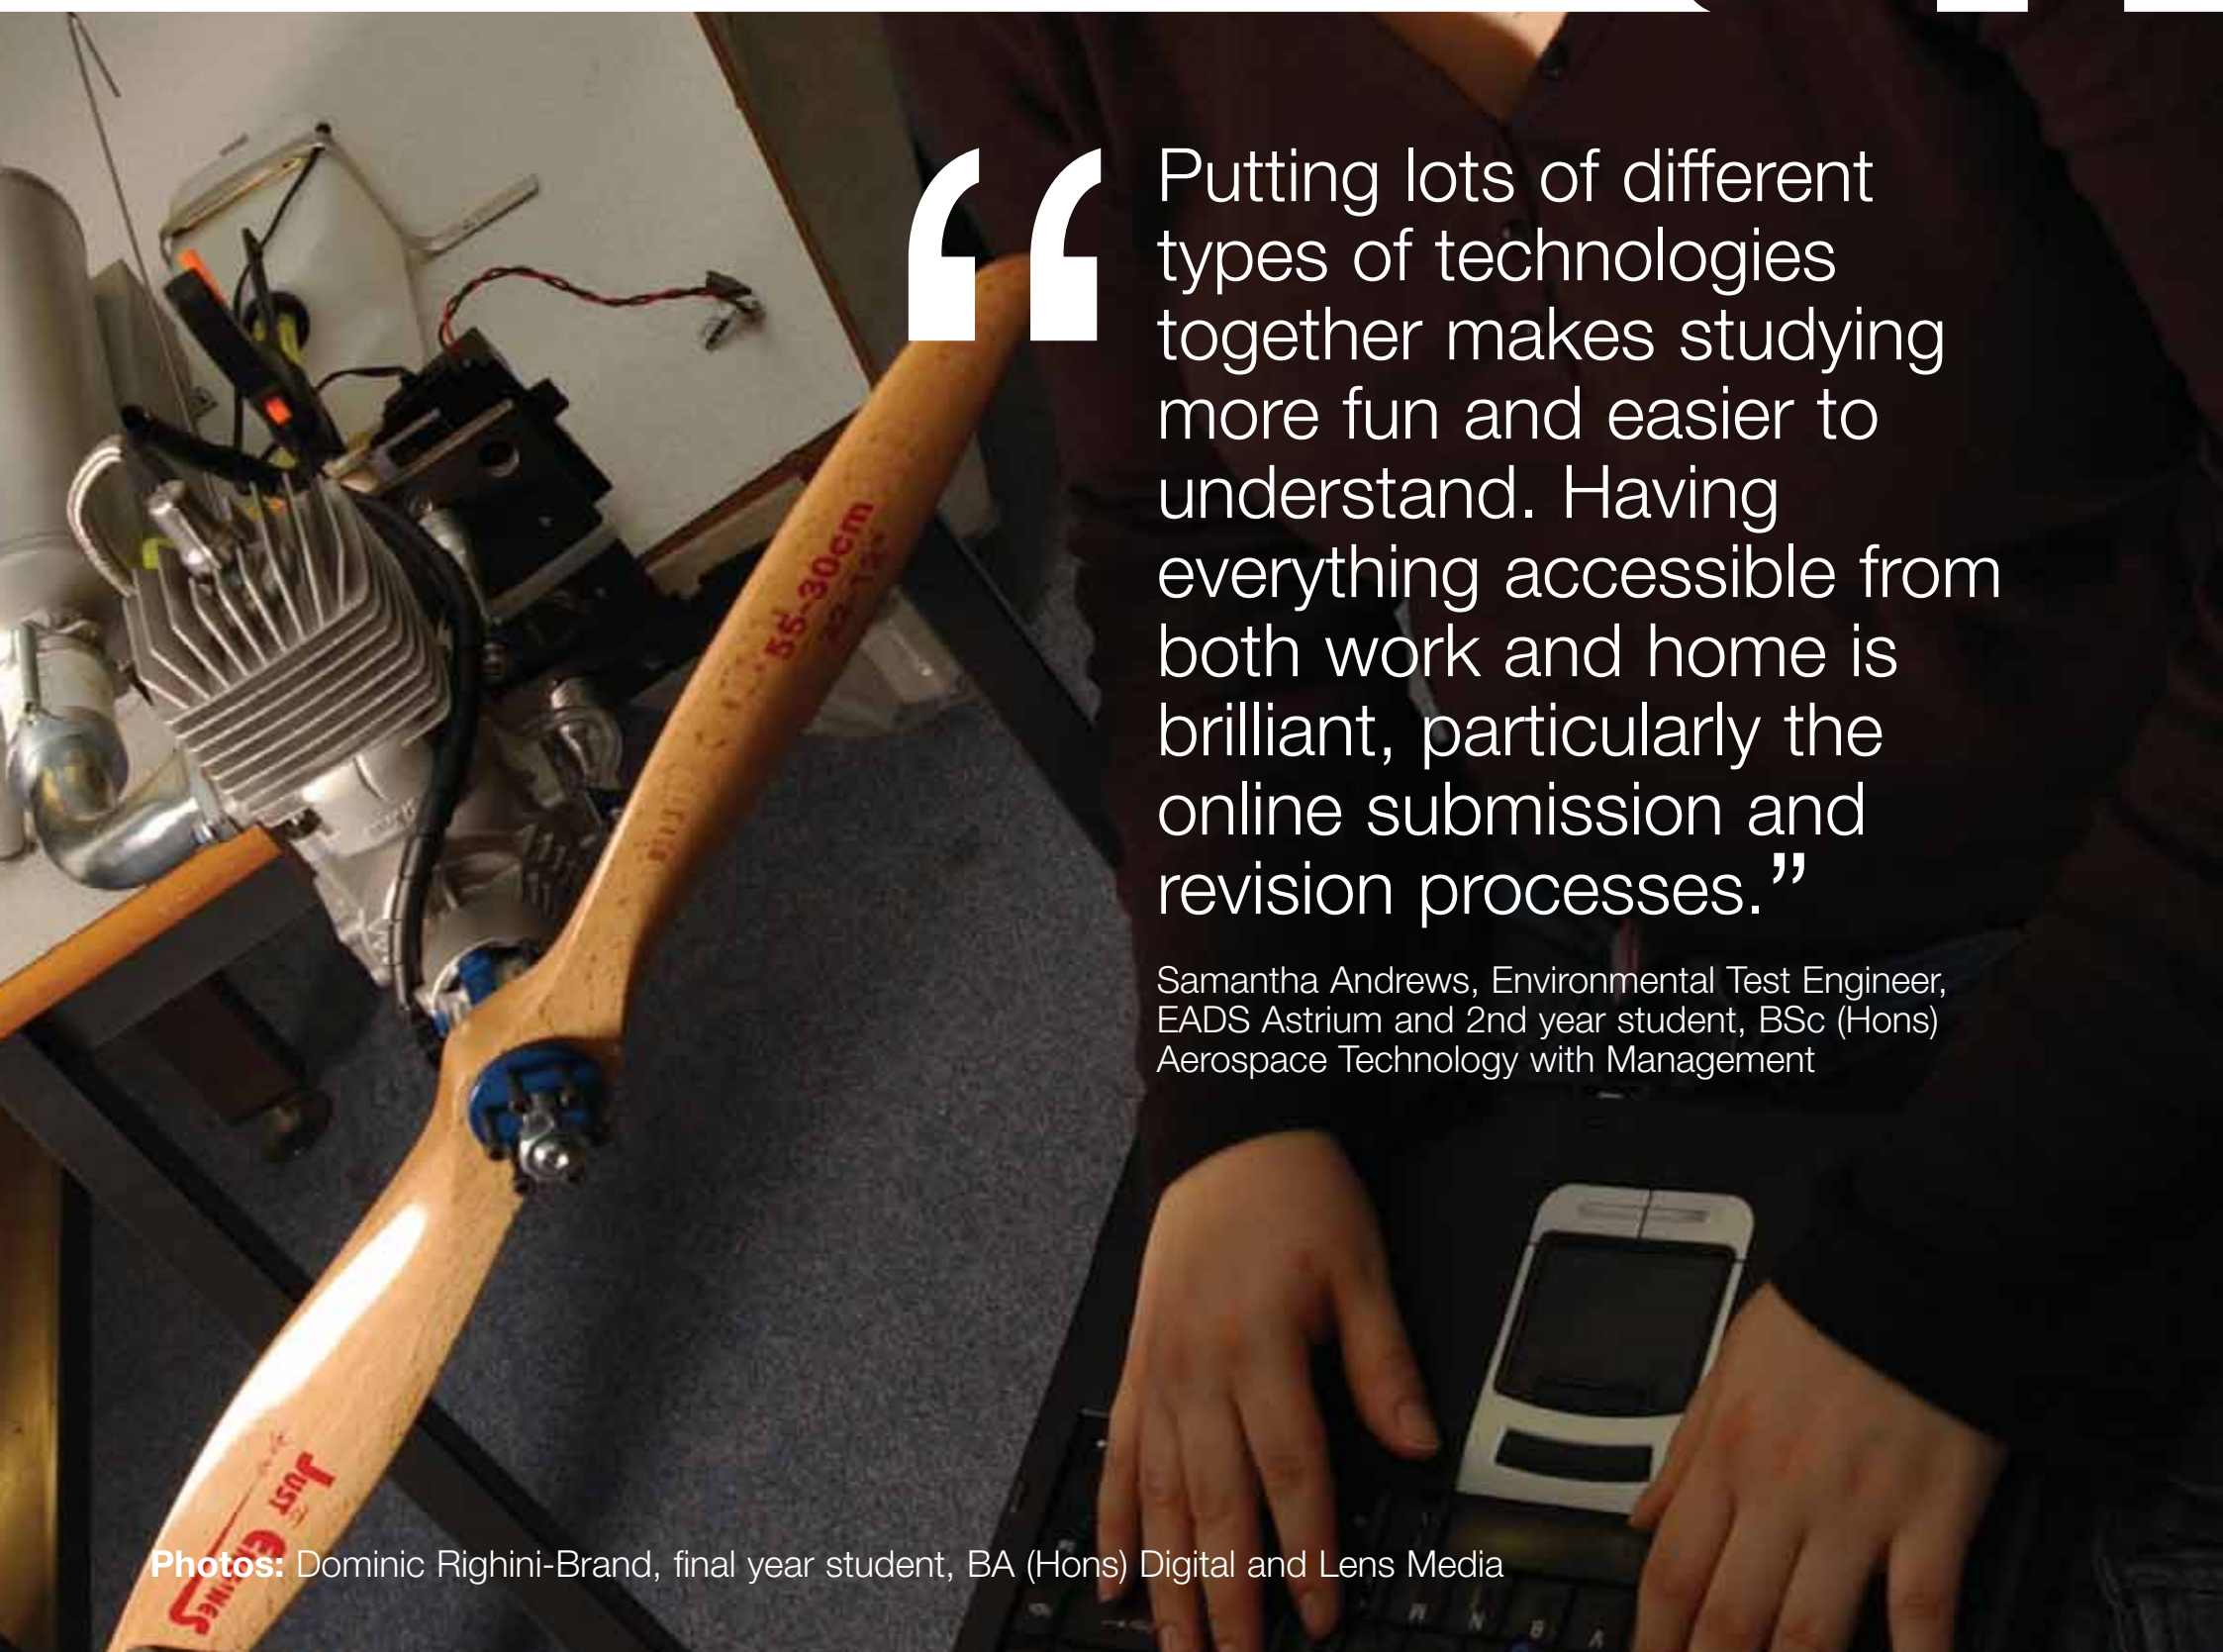

University of
Hertfordshire

Putting lots of different types of technologies together makes studying more fun and easier to understand. Having everything accessible from both work and home is brilliant, particularly the online submission and revision processes.”

Samantha Andrews, Environmental Test Engineer, EADS Astrium and 2nd year student, BSc (Hons) Aerospace Technology with Management

University of
Hertfordshire

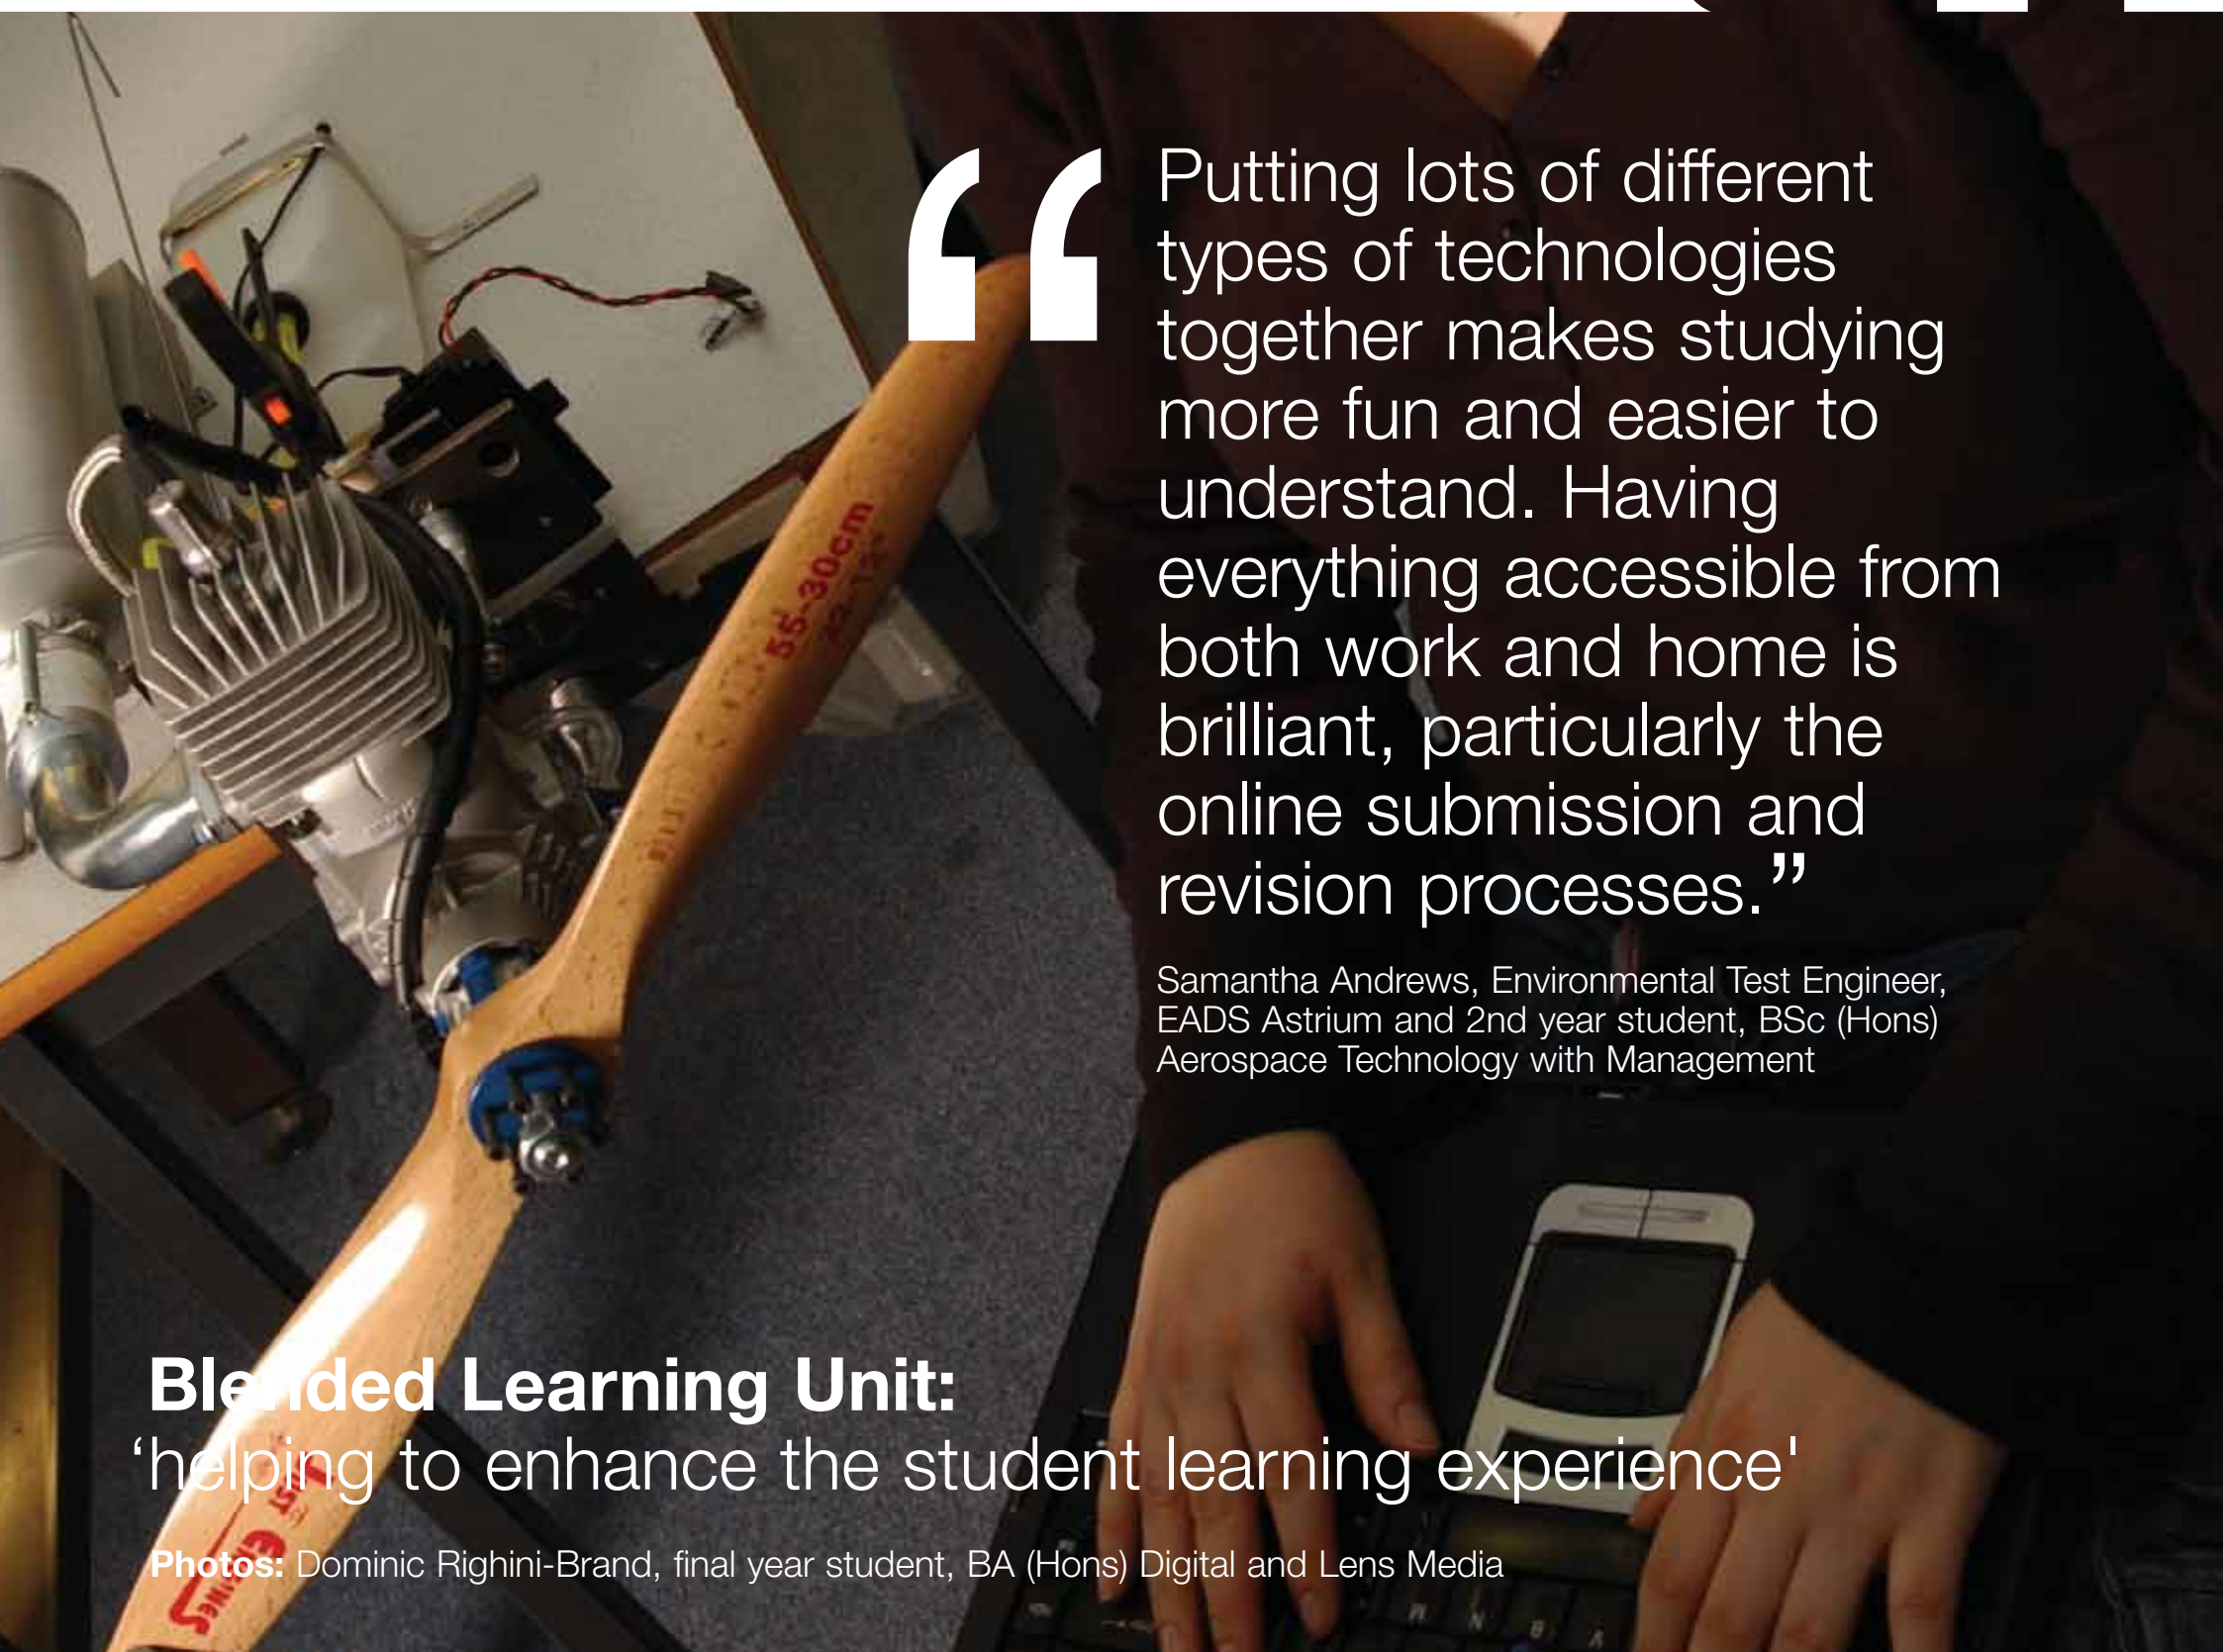

Putting lots of different types of technologies together makes studying more fun and easier to understand. Having everything accessible from both work and home is brilliant, particularly the online submission and revision processes.”

Samantha Andrews, Environmental Test Engineer, EADS Astrium and 2nd year student, BSc (Hons) Aerospace Technology with Management

Blended Learning Unit:
‘helping to enhance the student learning experience’

Photos: Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student, BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

“

I'm excited about coming to the university and using technology such as podcasts in my learning – I think communication with my lecturers will be enhanced too.”

Lola Ajimobi, Extended Combined Modular Programme,
Hertford Regional College

Blended Learning Unit:
'helping to enhance the student learning experience'

“

My friends and I often work in the Learning Resources Centre late at night – we can bring our laptops and chill out listening to music and work on our studies without the distractions of home.”

Craig Utteridge,
3rd year student, BEd Primary Education

Blended Learning Unit:
'helping to enhance the student learning experience'

Photos: Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student, BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

University of
Hertfordshire

“ Technology is all around us; I'm online 24/7... it's available to all of us and impacts on our work, social and study activities for the better.”

Hajrë Hyseni, MBA student,
Business School

Blended Learning Unit:
'helping to enhance the student learning experience'

Photos: Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student, BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

“

I've felt a genuine benefit from the use of blogging critical reflections of my studies. It's always comforting to get feedback from others and to see their blogs too.”

Sarah-Jane Munro

University of Hertfordshire

U
H

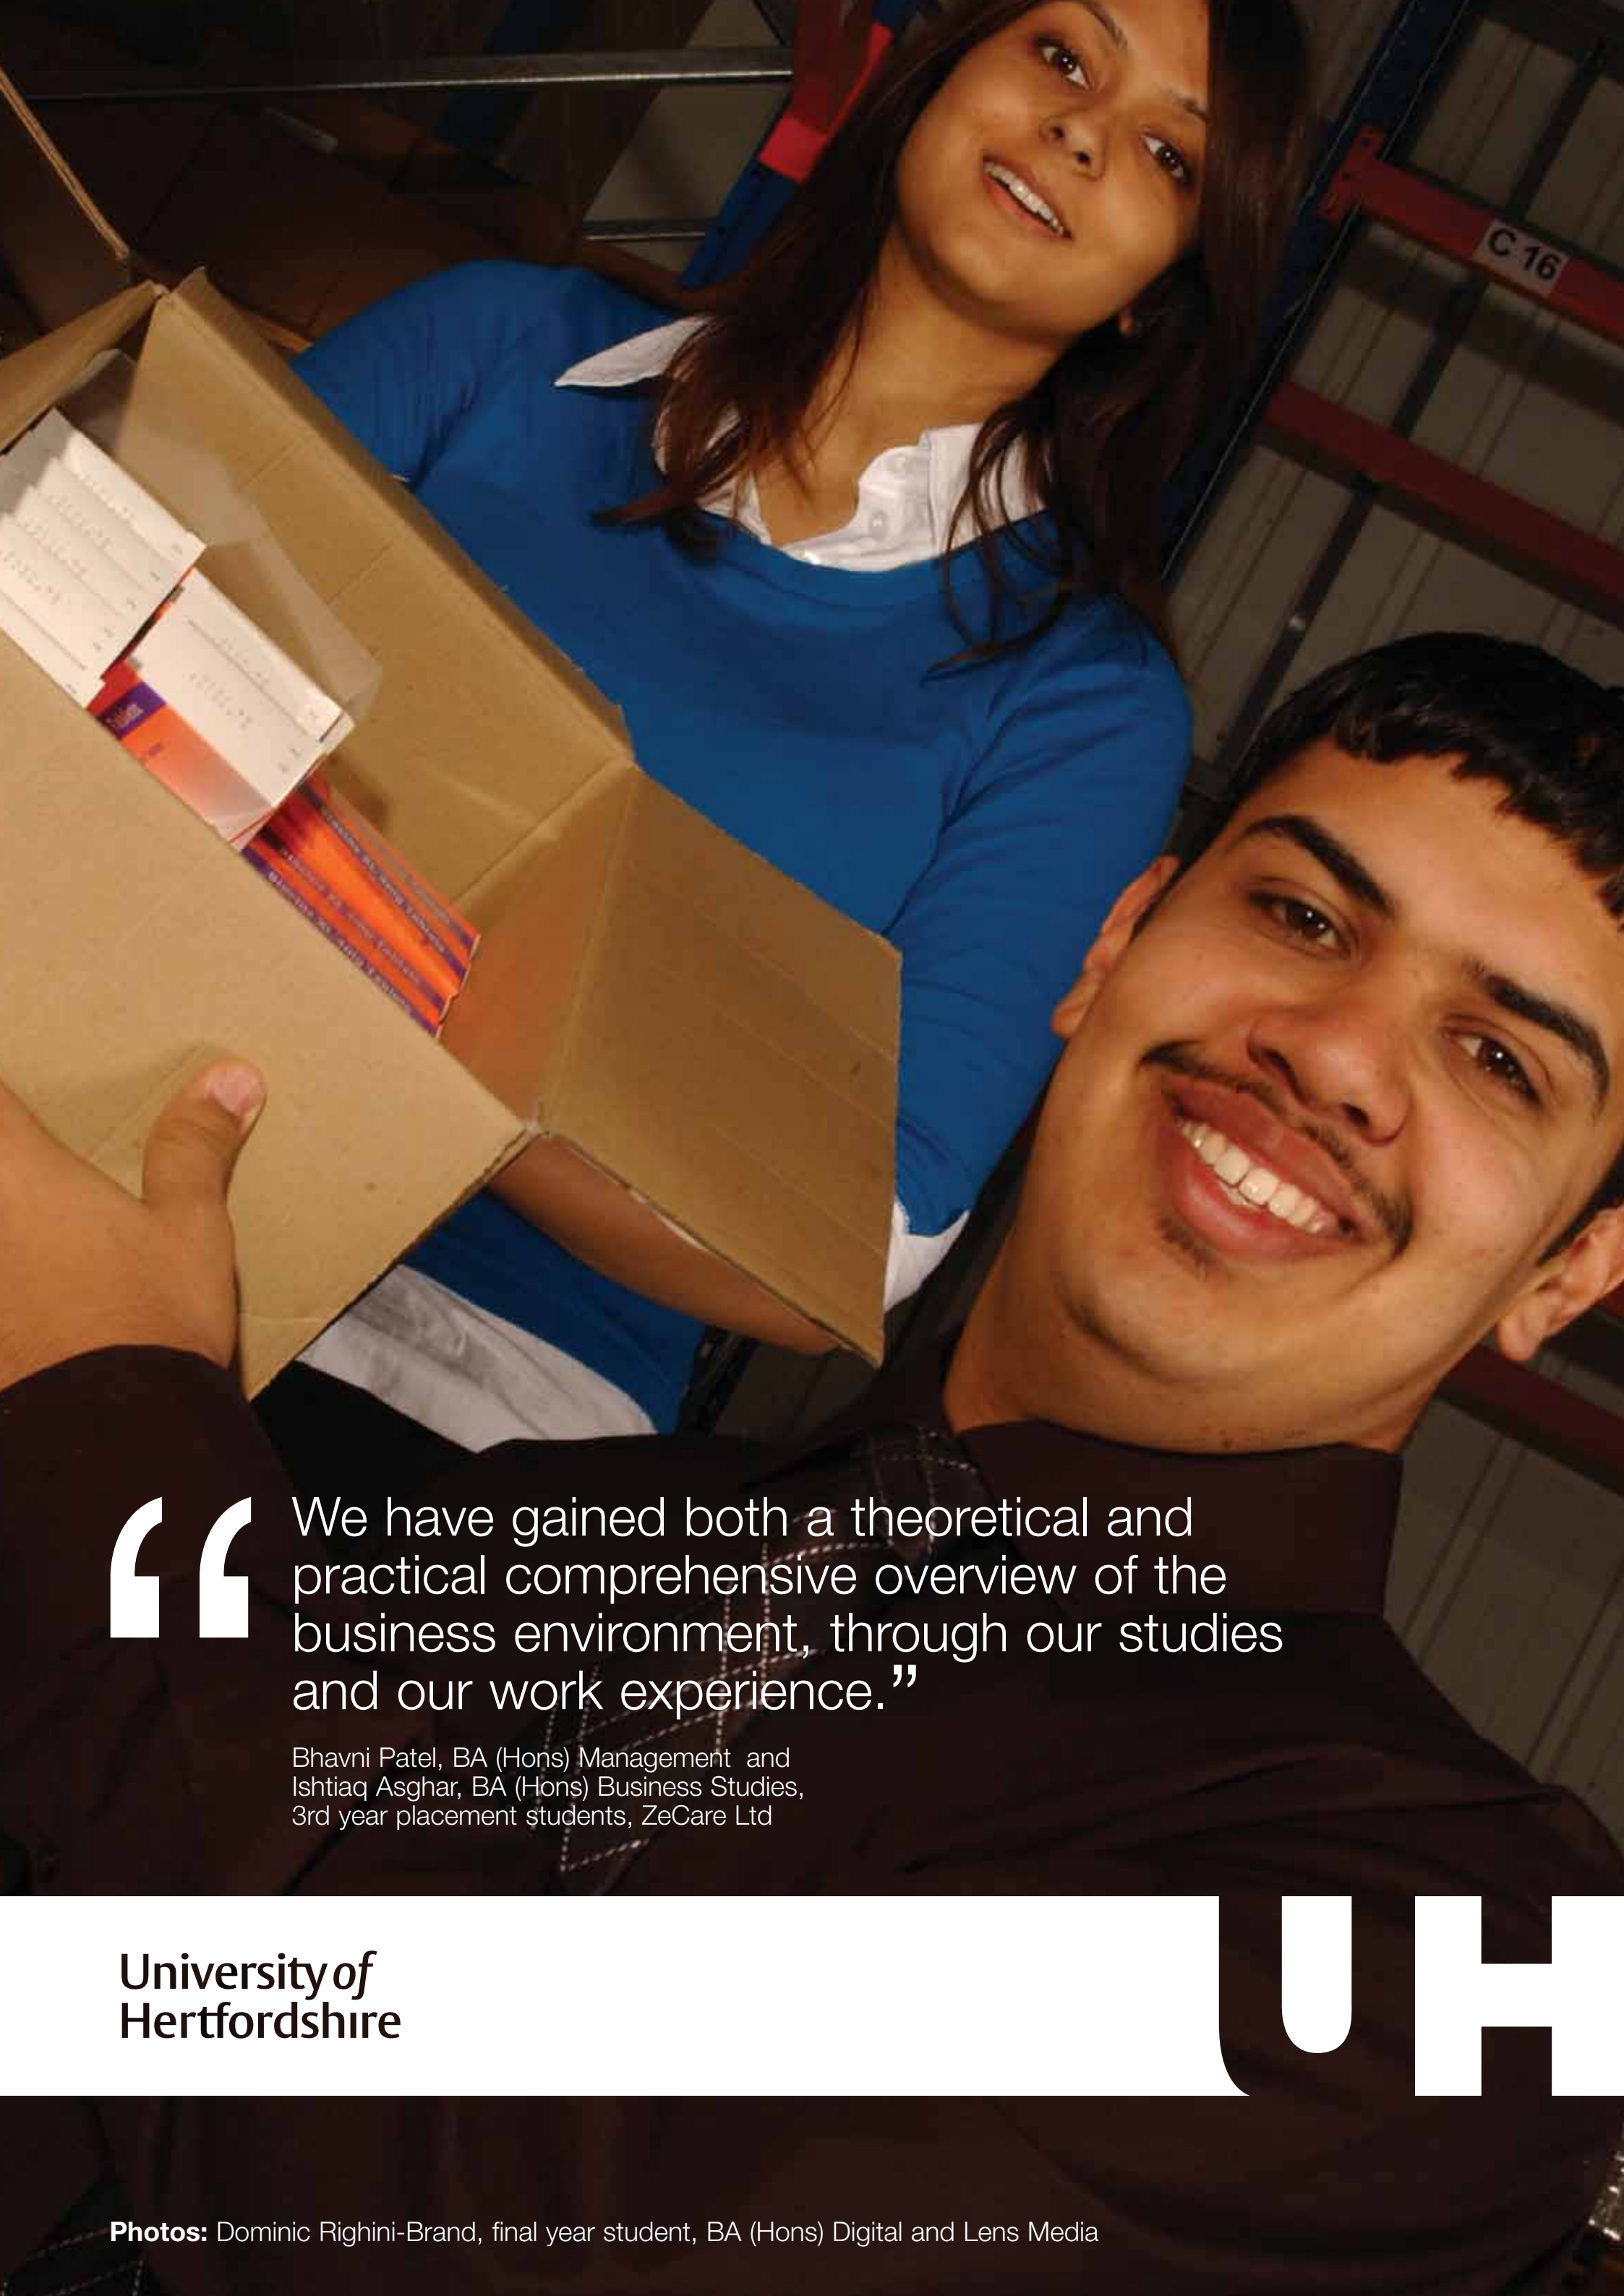

Blended Learning Unit:
'helping to enhance the student learning experience'

Photos: Dominic Righini-Brand, final year student, BA (Hons) Digital and Lens Media

“

Working for Graduate Futures, I've made a strong contribution towards enhancing the overall experience for students on work placements, as well as increasing the number of student placement applications.”

Klerissa Johnson, Graduate Employment Officer,
UHTalent (Graduate Futures), final year student,
BSc (Hons) Management Science and Spanish,
Business School

“

We have gained both a theoretical and practical comprehensive overview of the business environment, through our studies and our work experience.”

Bhavni Patel, BA (Hons) Management and Ishtiaq Asghar, BA (Hons) Business Studies,
3rd year placement students, ZeCare Ltd

University of
Hertfordshire

U
H