University of Hertfordshire UH

Hertfordshire Law Clinic

We offer free legal advice to the LGBT+ community on issues including discrimination at work, tenancy disputes, hate crime and relationship breakdown. We can also advise on change of name and gender recognition certificate applications.

Our advice is provided by solicitors or trained law students working under the supervision of our qualified solicitors. We offer a professional and confidential service with support from lawyers from the LGBT+ Lawyers Division of the Law Society.

The Clinic has the support of the University of Hertfordshire's LGBT+ Staff Network and LGBT+ Student Society. Clinic students receive equality, diversity and inclusion training, with specific guidance around LGBT+ issues.

The clinic is open during University term time.
