

Student Accommodation Eligibility and Priority

Start Continuing students are eligible Are you studying in your first year No for student accommodation on a at the University of Hertfordshire? first come first served basis. Ves Part time students are eligible for on-campus student accommodation. Are you studying a full time but with low priority. Nο course at the University? We cannot offer any quarantees to part time students. Yes You are eligible for student accommodation Will you be studying for the but with low priority. We cannot offer any No full academic year? quarantees to short course students Yes Online students are eligible for student Are you studying an accommodation, but with low priority. No on-campus course? We cannot offer any quarantees to online students. Yes Did you meet the University's Student Do you have a medical condition Accommodation or other special circumstances No No Guarantee? that will be impacted by your (This will differ depending accommodation? on whether you are home/ overseas/clearing applicant) Rooms will be Yes allocated on a first come Yes If you have medical/special first served circumstances you can request basis while You are quaranteed an adapted room or high priority still available a place in our allocation. You will need to

For information regarding our full policy, or any questions about your accommodation application, please contact us at accommodation@herts.ac.uk provide evidence (e.g. letter from doctor) to support your request.

on-campus student

accommodation