

Archive on 4: Instant History

was commended by the judges of the Public History Prize 2018.

Many congratulations to Andrew Green and the University of Hertfordshire

Oral History Team.

The Public History Prize supports and promotes the field of public history by recognising work that enhances public understanding of the place of the past in today's social, political and cultural life.

Margot Finn
President

Royal Historical Society
26 January 2018