

Women & Power

Thursday 8th March 2018

09.30-10.00am Registration/ Tea & Coffee

10.00-11.15am

Lindsey German – Sylvia Pankhurst.

Alana Jelinek – Some artists and novelists who inspire me (and who happen to be women).

Sharon Maxwell Magnus – Mrs Thatcher, Mrs Clinton and the politics of biscuits.

Julie Moore - Finding the 'women like us' in the First World War.

11.15-12.30pm

Diane Shepherd - Working-class women's agency in the Labour movement in East London, 1840-1914.

Natalie Walker – Elizabeth I: An image of Power.

Robyn Williams – Women of colour in recent history.

Lorraine Muir - Walking the Beat: Women in policing 1984-2012. A personal story.

Buffet Lunch (12.30-1.30)

1.30-2.45pm

Grace Lees-Maffei - The power of dexterity: gendered hands.

Diana Kornbrot – Nobel Women: differences and similarities across domains.

Jana Filsof – Holocaust Survivors.

Bharulata Kamble - Be bold. Be the change.

2.45-4.00pm

Helen Payne – Forget about power dressing: Let's empower our postures and movement!

Michele Lloyd – Women, Power and Empowerment in the Context of Education.

Elaine Carozzi – Strategies for powerful women in the workplace - What's holding women back in the workplace? Strong economies are built by strong women.

Anne Murphy – Finding our voice ... and using it.

4.00-4.30pm #PressForProgress Wind-up Session