

---

Welcome to Bayfordbury, this is your ticket for this special “Atmospheric” evening

Science Learning Centre \(main building\)

Talks:

7:00 pm: “A Blight Night”, on light pollution by Bob Mizon

7:45 pm: “Something in the air tonight?” on the atmosphere and climate change, by Dr. Detlef Mueller

8:30 pm: “A Blight Night”, on light pollution by Bob Mizon

9:15 pm: “Something in the air tonight?” on the atmosphere and climate change, by Dr. Detlef Mueller

HD Planetarium: shows at 6:10, 6:30, 6:50, 7:10 .... till 9:30

Labs: IR camera, LIDAR laser, Schmidt Plates, Modelling Clay workshop, Hoop Gliders, Time Snail, Dark Sky stand, Astrophotography, Herts Astronomy Group downstair: Ice Crystal Halo!

Computer Activities: Stellarium, Zoo Universe, Golf in Space, Atmospheric Models!

Downstairs in the café, food & refreshments are available.

Observatory \(outside -- follow map on the back\)

Take the shuttle or walk to the telescopes. In the latter case please stay on the illuminated path!!!

Telescopes & their targets:

Kitchin Telescope (36cm)

Marsh Telescope (50cm)

Paramount

Priddey Telescope

Kitchin Telescope

Ian Nicolson Telescope

Video Imaging Telescope

Cat’s eye Nebula

M57 Ring Nebular

M82 Cigar Galaxy

M31 Andromeda Galaxy

M13/15 Globular Cluster

Albireo double star

Moon

Patrick Moore Rotunda: Radio Astronomy Demonstration of the radio telescope

Please leave your feedback at <http://extragalactic.info/Bayfordbury/feedback.php>

---

Stay on the road, and keep clear of the moors...

