Career Defining

"Since gaining my master's, my career's taken off massively in ways I could never have expected. I've not only come into the advanced clinical practitioner role, I've also been privileged to be involved in a number of humanitarian deployments around the world... The education team at Herts are phenomenal."

Becky
Advanced Clinical Practitioner,
The Royal London Hospital

"Postgraduate study at Herts was instrumental in being able to set up and run my own business."

Commuting to Herts

By car

Driving is a popular option for many Herts students, with both campuses easily accessible via the M25 and the A1(M). Many students use the University's Park and Ride service, with 800 free parking spaces and a low-cost shuttle bus, it's a convenient and affordable way to get to campus. Student parking on campus is prioritised for permit holders with exceptional circumstances at College Lane and Blue Badge holders can park on either campus.

By train

Hatfield is just 25 minutes by train from London King's Cross, with regular services every 20 minutes, Monday to Friday. Railcards offer a one-third reduction on fares.

From Hatfield station, you can take an Uno bus to campus in around 10 minutes, cycle in 10–15 minutes or walk in about 30 minutes. Direct rail links are also available from Welwyn Garden City, Letchworth Garden City, Stevenage, Cambridge, and other commuter hotspots.

By bus

As a Herts students you'll get discounted Uno bus fares, with key connections direct to campus from Luton, St Albans, Hitchin, Stevenage, Hertford, Watford and North London.
