“1  RULES FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF STUDENT DISCIPLINE

(Note for guidance:

The term ‘Letter’ is defined in section 3.1.14, UPR SA15\^1/section 3.6, UPR SA13\^2 and means the Letter approved by the Secretary and Registrar for use at a specific point in this process.

Letters must be sent by Recorded Mail and to the email address the student has provided to the University for all correspondence.)

1.1  General rules

Those responsible for administering the University’s Student Disciplinary Procedures and its student Fitness to Practise processes will comply with the rules set out in this document.

1.2  Confidentiality

1.2.1  Other than for the proper administration of these procedures, information relating to any case which is the subject of disciplinary action or student fitness to practise proceedings is strictly confidential.

1.2.2  All parties to the case (including students and witnesses) and individuals who have been involved in any related investigation and/or the management and/or administration of the disciplinary process will observe the requirements for confidentiality. While confidential information will need to be disclosed in order to consider the case, it will be disclosed only to those staff involved in the consideration of the matter. In addition, confidential information may be disclosed to governmental, Police or regulatory authorities or otherwise disclosed as may be required by law.

1.2.3  All personal information will be processed by the University in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

1.2.4  Any breach of confidentiality will be regarded as a disciplinary matter.

\^1 UPR SA13 ‘Student Discipline’
\^2 UPR SA15 ‘Student Fitness to Practise’
\^3 Appendix V, UPR SA15 ‘Conduct of Panels and Hearings’
1.3 Conduct of Hearings

Panel Chairmen and others responsible for administering the University’s Student Disciplinary Procedures will comply with the following rules:

i. where a matter is being dealt with under the provisions of UPR SA13\textsuperscript{1}, the student may, if he or she so wishes, be accompanied by a Student’s Adviser at any Hearing or meeting to which the student has been invited at which the matter is to be discussed;

ii. where a matter is being dealt with under the provisions of UPR SA15\textsuperscript{2}, the student may, if he or she so wishes, be accompanied by a Student’s Adviser at any Hearing or meeting to which the student has been invited at which the matter is to be discussed but may not be represented at such a meeting or Hearing either by a member or nominee of the Students’ Union Executive or any other individual;

iii. the Chairman may at his or her discretion, invite a subject specialist to attend and to advise the Panel;

iv. where practicable, arrangements will take account of the needs and concerns of those involved;

v. the Hearing will be attended, as appropriate, by the individuals stipulated for each stage of these procedures;

vi. the case will be presented on behalf of the University by the Case Officer;

vii. the Case Officer may be questioned by the Chairman and the Panel and, at the invitation of the Chairman of the Panel, by the student;

viii. the Case Officer may call witnesses who may be questioned by the Chairman and at the invitation of the Chairman, by the student;

ix. the student may be questioned by the Chairman and the Panel;

x. the Chairman will invite the student to respond and to call any witnesses who may be questioned by the student and the Chairman of the Panel and, at the invitation of the Chairman, by the Case Officer;

xi. the Chairman will invite the Case Officer and then the student to make any closing remarks;

xii. the Chairman may direct the Case Officer and the student and his or her Adviser to withdraw while he or she considers the matter and may recall all parties for further questioning;

xiii. where possible, the Chairman will advise the student of his or her decision immediately after the Hearing or will indicate to the student when he or she might expect a decision;

xiv. a written record will be made of the Hearing in accordance with the detailed arrangements specified for each stage of these procedures;

xv. an audio recording of a Hearing may be permitted in exceptional circumstances, at the discretion of the Chairman and with the prior written consent of all persons who will be present. The exceptional circumstances will be a matter of record.
1.4 Students’ Adviser and Students’ Representatives

1.4.1 Students’ Advisers

a. A student may invite another person to accompany him or her to and to act as his or her Adviser at any Hearing or meeting (formal or informal) at which the matter is to be discussed.

b. Although the student might, for example, invite a lawyer or a Trade Union representative to act as his or her Student Adviser, it should be noted that the person attends the meeting or Hearing purely in an advisory capacity and does not, therefore, act as the student's representative.

c. Where a student wishes to be accompanied by a Student Adviser at a meeting or Hearing, he or she will so advise the Student Procedures Co-ordinator not less than five (5) working days beforehand.

d. A Student’s Adviser will only be permitted to speak during a Hearing if asked direct questions by the Chairman of the Panel. However, the student may consult freely with his or her Adviser at any time.

1.4.2 Students’ Representatives

a. Where a matter is being dealt with under the provisions of UPR SA13\(^1\), the student may elect to be represented at the Hearing or meeting by a member or nominee of the Students’ Union Executive.

b. Where a matter is being dealt with under the provisions of UPR SA15\(^2\), the student may not be represented at a meeting or Hearing either by a member or nominee of the Students’ Union Executive or any other individual.

1.5 Adjournment

In exceptional circumstances, at any stage of proceedings, an adjournment may be necessary for either party to obtain more evidence or for a Panel to consider the evidence further. Requests will be granted at the absolute discretion of the Chairman of the Panel and will not be withheld unreasonably.

1.6 Interface between the University’s complaints and grievance procedures

The processes whereby a complaint or grievance are dealt with by the University are distinct from the University’s disciplinary procedures although, in some circumstances, the investigation of a complaint may result in the University taking disciplinary action against a member of staff and/or a student or referring a matter for consideration under the provisions of UPR SA15\(^2\). Such proceedings and their outcomes are confidential and the complainant is not entitled to challenge their outcome.
