

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT<sup>1</sup>

SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL CHANGES

General changes

The document has been reviewed and is re-issued without amendment.

- 1 Our University is a student-focussed and diverse community of students and staff who work and study together closely and it is important that they are able to do so without disruption. The student community includes those enrolled on short courses; on undergraduate, taught postgraduate and Continuing Professional Development programmes; and those registered for research degrees.
- 2 The University has a fair admissions policy and aims to be responsive to all applicants and to provide pre-entry information that is appropriate. All students are able to use the high quality learning and teaching facilities and support services that we provide and are encouraged to participate actively in the work of the University through committee membership. There are well-established processes through which students may raise queries and complaints. Fuller information is given in the Statement of Responsibilities and Commitments (Appendix I, UPR SA01<sup>2</sup>, refers).
- 3 This Code of Conduct is intended to clarify the standard of behaviour that the University expects from students when they are at the University and when they go out into the wider community. These standards are enshrined in University regulation. Where this Code appears to conflict with University regulation, the latter will take precedence. The examples given in this Code are illustrative and are not an exhaustive list.
- 4 As a student we expect you:
  - i to commit to all elements of your programme of study, recognising that a full-time course requires the equivalent of a minimum 40 hours per week study time;
  - ii to be punctual in your attendance and to meet deadlines

(persistent, unexplained, late arrival at, or early departure from, lectures, seminars, tutorials and practicals is not acceptable);
  - iii to be attentive in class

(electronic devices other than those necessary for the session must be switched off for the entire period of the lecture, seminar, tutorial or practical, in particular, using your mobile telephone, texting or sending recordings/images is not acceptable;

any other form of behaviour which could reasonably be regarded as disruptive or offensive is also not acceptable);
  - iv to ensure that you do not behave in a disruptive manner either on or off campus

(the University considers disruptive, inconsiderate or offensive behaviour (including such behaviour in the on-line 'environment') to be a breach of discipline);
