What you liked about Hertfordshire Business School?

The outstanding quality of the programme content, the great devotion of the lecturers, as well as the state-of-the-art learning facilities. Most importantly, I enjoyed the diversity at Hertfordshire Business School. It was an incredible opportunity to meet and work with the fellow business students from different nationalities and cultural backgrounds. I have not only been able to develop a strong global professional network, but also become good friends with some of the most amazing people I have ever met.

What you do in your job?

I am currently working as a University Liaison Officer at London Head Office of UKuni – an UK-based international student recruitment representative. We provide education consultancy services to international students from all around the world wishing to undertake academic study programs in the UK. I am in charge of handling the communication between the clients and our partner universities, following up students' applications, assisting with admissions procedures and department training duties.

Whom you would like to connect with in the Alumni Network?

I would like to connect with other alumni who are interested in the international education area, and current international students who find my experience helpful for their future career prospects.
